

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING
Cooperative Extension Service

And

Presents:

Drought Management Workshop

A workshop evaluating drought management alternatives for livestock producers

July 19th 6 - 9 PM Wheatland
First State Bank Community Building

And

July 20th 6-9 PM Torrington
Goshen County Fairgrounds – Brand Room

Agenda:

- 6 – 6:20 PM Risk management alternatives for rangeland, limit-fed high concentrate diets for cows, and impact of drought on rangeland. Dallas Mount, UW Extension Educator
- 6:20 – 6:45 Early weaning as a tool to reduce feed requirements during drought. Wayne Tatman, UW Extension Educator
- 6:45 – 7:30 Tax implications of livestock sales due to drought. Dr. Alan Schroeder, Ag Law Specialist, UW Cooperative Extension Service
- 7:30 – 9 Economic Evaluations of Drought Management Strategies. Dr. Harlan Hughes, Professor Emeritus NDSU, Western Edge Consulting